

Garrett J. Nagle Jr. is President and founder of Garrett Nagle & Co., Inc. He chairs the Investment Committee and Research Department. He interfaces directly with senior managements of selected portfolio companies as part of the overall decision-making process. Prior to the firm's inception, he was a partner in two NYSE member firms specializing in portfolio research to institutional investors. Boston College, Babson College.

Garrett T. Nagle is the Financial and Operations Principal, Chief Compliance Officer and a member of the firm's Investment Committee. He is active in the research process and implements the firm's investment strategy. Primary responsibilities include a focus on portfolio management, with particular emphasis in the area of asset allocation. Garrett also manages GN & Co.'s Trading Department, handling all equity and fixed income transactions. He has been with the firm since 1990. Bentley College.

Dora Strout is a new member to Garrett Nagle & Co., Inc. She is responsible for the firm's financials as well as compliance functions tied to the financials. Dora has over 15 years experience in financial, accounting and business operations. Merrimack College

Elaine P. Lombardo is the firm's Client Service Representative. She deals extensively with firm clients as well as pension administrators. Elaine is the firm's primary liaison with our clearing firm, handling all phases of new account transfers from initial paperwork through to verification of receipt of all client assets. Elaine has been with Garrett Nagle & Co., Inc. for eleven years. Bay State Jr. College.